

University of Iowa Mini Medical School

Spring 2008 Series

7pm – 9pm

April 8, 15, 22 & 29, 2008

Medical Education and Research Facility, Iowa City

Explore the newest theories and research on slowing the aging of vision, hearing and mobility.

Making Sense of Your Health See More. Hear More. Do More.

Session 1

Tuesday, April 8

Age Related Vision Loss

Understanding Common Eye Conditions and Looking into the Future • John Fingert, M.D., Ph.D.

Medical, Surgical and Rehabilitation Treatments • Mark E. Wilkinson, O.D., FAAO

Session 2

Tuesday, April 15

Age Related Hearing Loss

Causes and Rehabilitation of Hearing Loss: Past, Present & Future • Marlan Hansen, M.D.

Hearing Loss, Hearing Aids, and Communication Strategies • Shea L. Becker, AuD, CCC-A

Session 3

Tuesday, April 22

Maintaining and Restoring Mobility

Aging and Loss of Mobility • Joseph A. Buckwalter, M.S., M.D.

Restoring Mobility in 2008 • John J. Callaghan, M.D.

Session 4

Tuesday, April 29

Medical Student Experience

Experience first hand what our medical students encounter during this evening of interactive exploration. Participate in hands-on medical education experiences in one of our patient simulation centers, the heart and lungs station or learn how to research your health questions on the internet.

To register go to www.medicine.uiowa.edu/minimedicalscool or call (319)335-8886 or 877-MEDIOWA