

The University of Iowa

The University of Iowa, one of three public universities operated by the State of Iowa, was established in 1847 in Iowa City. It has a faculty of more than 2,700, who educate more than 28,000 students. The Board of Regents, State of Iowa is the governing body whose members are appointed by the Governor. Sally Mason, Ph.D., is the 20th President of the University of Iowa. She has a Ph.D. in cellular, molecular, and developmental biology and previously served as Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at the University of Kansas. The University of Iowa Roy J. and Lucille A. Carver College of Medicine is the only allopathic medical school in the state of Iowa.