

COMMUNITY AND IMPACT

FY 2024

University of Iowa Health Care changes lives through service to Iowans and their communities.

71,647

Personal engagements in outreach and education with 67 community partners

56,318

Participants in health professions training, job shadowing, and STEM programs

49%

of Iowa's 5,778 practicing physicians received medical education or training at Iowa

7,408

Providers from all 99 Iowa counties participated in continuing education programs

Community Benefit

Community benefit programs and activities improve access to health care services, enhance the health of the community, advance medical or health knowledge, and/or relieve or reduce the burden of government or other community efforts. Types of community support include:

- Health education and injury prevention programs
- Health professions training, job shadows
- K-12 STEM education
- Subsidized health services
- Health screenings
- Medical/first aid care provided at community events
- Support groups
- Continuing medical education for community providers
- Transportation support for patients
- Lodging for discharged patients

$416,981,007

in value of staff time, in-kind services, and financial donations reported in community benefit programs and activities

484,234

Persons served through community benefit

18,580

Persons served through financial assistance