

MAD LIBS: A Day in the Life of a Doctor

My alarm clock goes off at exactly _____ to make sure I get to work on (time)
time. Today I have _____ patients to see in the morning, so I don't have any (number)
time to waste! The waiting room was full when I arrived with so many patients including a _____ year old with _____ eyes and nails, a kid with a (age) (color)
a _____ stuck in their nose, and one of the parents _____ (singular noun) (adverb ending in -ly) asking the receptionist to turn on _____ to entertain their children while (TV show)
they wait. This seemed like a _____ day until someone with _____ (adjective) (disease/injury) walked in the front doors! They were traveling through _____, where (place)
our office is located, and heard we were the best doctors when it came to
_____, so, they had to come here to be treated. I started the physical (medical specialty)
examination by taking their temperature with a _____. Next, we (noun)
listened to the heartbeat with a _____. Finally, we looked into their (noun)
ears with a _____. WOW. We figured out what the problem was.
(noun)
They had _____ in their ears! It's a good thing they got that taken care of.
(noun)
You never know what the day in the life of a doctor will look like!